1. I have read and understood the information from the University of Bradford outlining its policies and procedures in relation to young people under the age of 18 (<https://www.bradford.ac.uk/media-v8/site/about-us/Safeguarding-Policy-and-Procedures.pdf>).
2. I agree to the above applicant both travelling to the UK (if applicable) and living independently in the UK.
3. I have provided the full name and contact details of the person living in the UK, local to the University of Bradford, who will act as guardian (if applicable).
4. I consent to the University of Bradford acting on medical advice in the best interests of the above applicant to authorise emergency medical treatment if it is not possible to contact the parent/guardian.
5. I understand that the University of Bradford is not in loco parentis and that in case of emergency the University will always endeavour to contact the parent/guardian of the above applicant while they remain a minor.
6. I agree to act as guarantor for any tuition fees, accommodation fees and any other sums incurred by the applicant and owed to the University until they becomes 18 years of age.
7. I understand that the above applicant must live with a family member or guardian, or, where university accommodation is required, in The Green, University of Bradford approved accommodation, whilst they are under the age of 18. For applicants living in The Green, wardens will visit three times per week. Only at the end of the years' tenancy, in which the above applicant turns 18, can they change to an alternate accommodation provider if they so wish.
8. I understand that University of Bradford is as adult environment and that the above applicant will generally be treated as an adult.

9. I understand that University of Bradford cannot release information relating to the above applicant's academic progression or personal life without their express consent.

If having considered all of the information you have been sent, you do not wish to permit the above applicant to participate in activities that students are normally expected to undertake, for example trips, fieldwork, laboratory work or placements, you must inform us immediately by contacting the Admissions Team on +4 (0)1274 236591 or email admissions@bradford.ac.uk. Please note that this may affect his/her choice of programme of study.

I/We confirm that I/we have sole parental responsibility/joint parental responsibilities/been appointed guardian (delete as appropriate) of the above applicant. Where joint parental responsibility has been indicated both parents must sign.

I/We Parents/Guardians (delete as appropriate) of the above applicant declare that I have read, understood and accept the terms and conditions above.
